

My name is Oluwaseun Soneye, but for more straightforward pronunciation call me Seun, I'm a graduate student from the School of Fine Arts, University of Lethbridge, studying Music (Ethnomusicology) I am here to let you all know of my interest in serving and represent this great school at the Graduate level, my goal is to allow our voice be heard and well represented at the Graduate level, I am committed to serve you.

I have served in this capacity while in my undergraduate back in Nigeria, I was the first Department of Music representative at the faculty level and the First President of the Department at the University of Ibadan Nigeria, and I know this is a commitment of service to my fellow Graduate colleague at this great Citadel of learning if given this opportunity I will serve and only be committed to the interest of my fellow Graduate, and represent the School of Fine Arts well.

Thank You and I look forward to your endorsement.

Oluwaseun Soneye.
