

Travel Award Application

This award was established by the GSA to assist with registration and travel costs for full or part-time graduate students who are presenting at a nationally or internationally recognized conference within Canada or elsewhere.

General Information:

- Applicant must be registered at the University of Lethbridge as a part or full-time graduate student at the time of the conference this award is to be applied to.
- Students may receive the award once per degree level. The maximum award is $500.00 per degree level.
- The GSA reserves the right to partially reimburse students to cover the reasonable market value of the expenses. Reasonable expenses assume that you are shopping around and paying reasonable or fair market value for the items or services you are claiming.

Deadline to submit applications is ongoing; however, your application must be received the semester prior to the beginning of the conference in which this award is to be applied to. Incomplete applications will automatically be rejected

Applications can be emailed to gsa@uleth.ca or submitted to:

University of Lethbridge – Student Safety Abroad

The University recognizes that international travel plays an important role in business, research and academics. International programs also provide global opportunities to gain diverse cross-cultural experiences which can strengthen conceptual, analytical, linguistic and cross-cultural skills.

The Student Safety Abroad policy (<http://www.uleth.ca/policy/student-safety-abroad-policy>) sets out standards to ensure safer experiences for University of Lethbridge students who travel internationally as part of a university program or activity.

All students are required to complete a Travel Risk Orientation (on-line or in person) through Campus Safety prior to departure and REGISTER (<https://www.uleth.ca/campus-safety/forms/student-safety-abroad-registry>) their travel outside of Canada as it relates to University sponsored activities and programs.

The University has partnered with International SOS (<http://www.uleth.ca/risk-and-safety-services/international-sos>) to assist university travelers with anything from the preplanning stages of travel through any emergency or concern while working or studying outside the borders of Canada. The University's unique membership number is 27AYCA545904 and can be used when downloading the International SOS smart app and logging into the SOS website through the web portal.

For more information please contact Campus Safety, Insurance & Risk (insurance.risk@uleth.ca) or visit supporting web pages for further information and resources (<http://www.uleth.ca/risk-and-safety-services/university-travel-outside-canada-0>)
