Graduate Students' Association Representatives (GSAR) Code of Conduct Agreement 2024 - 2025

GSAR MEMBERS WILL:

Uphold the GSA's Objects, Bylaws, Policies, and Procedures.

Represent the best interests of all GSA members over and above their personal agendas and interests.

Be responsible for the timely fulfillment of their respective portfolio requirements, as per the GSA Bylaws.

Be responsible for providing timely feedback to members of the GSA Executive (GSAE).

Raise questions and/or concerns on behalf of GSA members at GSA Council (GSAC) meetings as appropriate.

Read all materials for, attend, and actively participate in all GSAC meetings. If unable to attend, appoint a suitable proxy and inform the GSAC Chair and President a minimum of 48 hours prior to a GSAC meeting.

Respect the confidentiality of information discussed at GSAC meetings, internal GSA committees, and University of Lethbridge committees when representing the GSA and its membership.

Declare potential conflicts of interest when called upon to vote or represent graduate students in any capacity.

Not speak on behalf of the Association in any official context unless officially called upon to do so.

Treat fellow GSA members and staff with professionalism and courtesy at all times.

In good faith expect to serve as a GSAC representative for one full year or until graduation.
